Your kit list for Morocco

Top Tip
Wear your walking boots on the plane so you have more space in your luggage

Clothing

- [ ] Walking Boots/Sturdy Trainers
These should have a strong grip to cope with lots of walking. Pack blister plasters if you aren't used to wearing them
- [ ] Hiking Socks
One pair for each day of your trip
- [ ] Layered Clothing
A combination of long-sleeve and short-sleeve tops, as well as jumpers and a lightweight jacket
- [ ] Trousers
Outdoor/walking trousers are required in all seasons. Opt for lightweight sportswear and synthetic fabrics which dry quickly
- [ ] Waterproof Outerwear
A good wind and rainproof jacket with hood and waterproof trousers are essential as the weather can change without warning
- [ ] Swimwear and Towel
- [ ] Sleepwear
Rooms are warm and comfortable, standard pyjamas are advised
- [ ] Day Bag/Rucksack
Ideally a backpack as this is more suitable for walking and trekking
- [ ] Sunglasses and Sun Hat
- [ ] Modest Clothing
Bring loose, lightweight clothing that covers shoulders and knees to respect local customs during certain excursions.

Toiletries

- [ ] Suncream
The sun can be very strong in Morocco, so sun protection is required even on cloudy days
- [ ] Insect repellent
Required in the summer months
- [ ] Glasses/Contact Lenses
We recommend bringing a spare pair of glasses
- [ ] Medication
Some medicines may require a doctor's letter confirming that the drugs are medically required. Check with the embassy about the rules before you travel

Miscellaneous

- [ ] Power Adaptors
Morocco uses the common European two prong plugs (types C and E)
- [ ] Face Covering/Scarf
Useful in the desert or arid regions for protection from the sun and sand
- [ ] Lunchbox
Check with your travel specialist if required on your trip
- [ ] Phone
- [ ] Camera
- [ ] Chargers
- [ ] Reusable Water Bottle
- [ ] Towels (if staying at Desert Camp)
- [ ] Overnight bag (if staying at Desert Camp)
- [ ] Torch (if staying at Desert Camp)

Important Documents

- [ ] Passport
Take photocopies of all those travelling in your group as well
- [ ] Itinerary
- [ ] Travel Insurance
- [ ] Emergency Contact Information
- [ ] Dietary Requirements List

Luggage

We recommend taking as little as possible whilst ensuring you have all the essential items for your trip. Check that the weight of your luggage does not exceed the maximum allowance, and that you and your students are able to comfortably carry your own bags.
