Discover the World Education

- The refund offer applies to teachers leading their first Iceland school trip with Discover the World Education, including those who already have a qualifying Iceland booking in place at the time of registering for the Teacher Inspection VisitTo qualify for the refund, the school trip must depart after the Teacher Inspection Visit has taken place
- Applications with school trip bookings departing before the Teacher Inspection Visit may be considered at the discretion of Discover the World Education
- If a participant cancels their place before departure, the following cancellation charges will apply, based on the number of days before departure that notice is received:
    - Cancellation > 90 days before: 20% of total trip cost
    - Cancellation 90-22 days before: 50% of total trip cost
    - Cancellation 21-15 days before: 75% of total trip cost
    - Cancellation 14-8 days before: 90% of total trip cost
    - Cancellation 7-0 days before departure: 100% of total trip cost
- 40 participants will be allocated for this trip, but extra capacity can be considered subject to availability
- In the event of oversubscription, priority will be given to schools that are actively planning a school trip and would benefit from experiencing the destination to support trip planning, health and safety assessments, and curriculum development
- Participation is open to practising teachers, educational professionals aged 18 or over, and staff members responsible for organising and leading international school trips. Discover the World Education reserves the right to request proof of teaching status (such as a valid school email address or email signature/footer to confirm eligibility for participation)
- Teachers planning or leading their first Iceland trip with Discover the World Education are eligible to apply, regardless of whether they already have an Iceland booking in place
- Discover the World Education reserves the right to determine eligibility and allocate places at their discretion
- Participants agree to engage fully with the educational programme and provide feedback following the visit if requested by Discover the World Education

- Transport to and from Birmingham Airport, or any other departure airport, is not included
- Expenses outside of the half-board  basis will not be included
- Travel insurance is not included and must be arranged independently before departure to cover cancellation costs, medical expenses and personal belongings independently by all participants before departure
- Teachers based outside the UK are welcome to participate. However, where flight costs from an alternative departure point significantly exceed the standard Birmingham airfare, a supplement may be required to cover the difference
- Accommodation is based on same gender participants sharing a room. Single occupancy rooms may be available on request and will incur an additional cost subject to availability
- Participants are responsible for ensuring they hold a valid passport and meet applicable entry requirements for travel to Iceland
- Discover the World Education reserves the right to make changes to the published itinerary where operational requirements, weather conditions, supplier availability or other unforeseen circumstances apply
- Participants agree that photographs and video footage captured during the trip may be used by Discover the World Education for marketing, promotional and educational purposes (unless otherwise requested in writing before departure)
- Any personal data provided will be processed in accordance with Discover the World Education's Privacy Policy and data protection legislation
- Discover the World Education's decision regarding eligibility, participation and refund qualification is final
